

Amanda was born November 27, 1885, and married John Parcell McGuire of Daniel, who was born March 6, 1876, at Wallburg, son of P. H. and Sarah E. Parcell McGuire. They moved to Provo, where he operated a real estate business and was postmaster for 13 years. Both were active in the Church, John being stake clerk for a number of years. They had three daughters and four sons.

Amanda was born November 27, 1885, and married John Parcell McGuire of Daniel, who was born March 6, 1876, at Wallburg, son of P. H. and Sarah E. Parcell McGuire. They moved to Provo, where he operated a real estate business and was postmaster for 13 years. Both were active in the Church, John being stake clerk for a number of years. They had three daughters and four sons.

Amanda was born November 27, 1885, and married John Parcell McGuire of Daniel, who was born March 6, 1876, at Wallburg, son of P. H. and Sarah E. Parcell McGuire. They moved to Provo, where he operated a real estate business and was postmaster for 13 years. Both were active in the Church, John being stake clerk for a number of years. They had three daughters and four sons.

Amanda was born November 27, 1885, and married John Parcell McGuire of Daniel, who was born March 6, 1876, at Wallburg, son of P. H. and Sarah E. Parcell McGuire. They moved to Provo, where he operated a real estate business and was postmaster for 13 years. Both were active in the Church, John being stake clerk for a number of years. They had three daughters and four sons.